

For your use only, for the purpose of written test. Please do not share.

Video	Video Source	Text on Screen	Audio
00:00 Landscape lakes	UNMIK	GEO TAG Kosovo
Villages Gjakove landscape  Mirlinda on camera  Cut to street march 00:42		(text bottom screen)  “all rights relating to Kosovo should be understood to be in the context of UN SC 1244 1999  Text on screen International Women’s Day Pristina 2021	My name is Mirlinda Sada I come from from Gjakova.  I am an Executive Director of Medica Gjakova.  When I was a child I saw that women have no rights, equal rights like the men in our society.  I used to advocate to the families of my friends to give my friends the freedom of movement and the freedom of

			being free and living their life as they want.
00:44 -		During and after the 1998 -99 conflict in Kosovo a large number of women, men, boys and girls were subjected to sexual violence
		Mirlinda leads a team of 17 women at Medica Gjakova, providing holistic assistance to survivors of Conflict Related Sexual Violence
00:55 GV Gjakove		Their work is supported by UNMIK and other international partners such as Medica Mondiale
	Mirlinda on camera		Working in civil society is much more than working. It's a mission. Medica Gjakova's with their work covers all of Kosovo. We support Albanians, (RAE) Roma, Ashkali, the Egyptian community.

			We have Serbian, women Bosnian and Turkish women. We provide them with that we provide psychosocial support, gynecological support, legal support and also support for economic empowerment
01:26 Various factory floor workers	UNMIK		To increase their capacities we orientate them to do the business - to open any start up, or to produce the products that they need, in order to generate some money for themselves and for their families.
01:45		FONT UP Laura Qarkaxhija, Project Manager Medica Gjakova	Because of the stigma we try to engage different groups of women [including non-survivors in the economic sector. Therefore, we always try to ensure that the group includes both women who have experienced violence, and also women who have been repatriated, or are from minorities. This creates

			a diverse group so that survivors are not identified
02:06		Mirlinda's team helps reduce stigma through training medical staff, public awareness campaigns and by supporting the creation of laws acknowledging the impact of conflict on women.
02:13		They also empower survivors to create self-help groups for women to strengthening their own reintegration and leadership skills
Linda on camera 02:19			LINDA We know that the stigma is so high here and due to the stigma, the people are not able to speak out about what happened to them, and also to apply for the pension.
		FONT UP CRSV Survivor	They supported me, they looked after me.

			We gathered every second week. I thank them. They relieved me from the stress. I had enormous anxiety. After I went to Medica, and I got the skills, then I told my husband: Will you come too? Try it out. And he said: yes.
03:06		Starting in 2015, women and men who experienced sexual violence between 27 February 1998 and 20 June 1999 are eligible to apply for survivor status and a monthly pension Medica Gjakova helps survivors apply for the status
03:14			LINDA we as an organization, we are prepared to start advocacy and to change the deadline for application in the law

			because it is only five years. we have only two years more. So this is our objective the women to be able to take decisions or to be part of the decision in the family and also in the community.
			LINDA It is an improvement from the beginning until today, regarding the participation of women in politics
04:01		TEXT The Kosovo law on general elections has a quota guaranteeing women 30% of the seats in Parliament
04:09		TEXT Since 2008, the number of women elected to parliament without relying on this quota continues to increase
04:11		In the most recent election, five of the ten most voted candidates are women
			LINDA

			The quota helped us a lot by making women to visible. And we now have women that have got the vote directly and they are visible and they are able to do the politics better than the men.
04:35		TEXT Today, Medica Gjakova continues its advocacy and survivor support programs while also working to increase women's participation in all aspects of society
			LINDA Our intention for the future is that the women survivors to-live in dignity and without violence. END